ABOUT IFC8

Founded in Singapore, where one of the busiest hubs exists, InFinite Connection (IFC8) knows the challenges freight forwarders face daily. Networking is one of the solutions as building a solid base of global agents allows them to grow businesses exponentially in the most cost-effective manner. IFC8 provides forwarders with an active and viable network comprising well-established companies that are trustworthy and reliant, ensuring they meet reputation, service levels and financial requirements.

INFINITE CONNECTION, INFINITE POSSIBILITIES

IFC8 is an exciting semi-exclusive freight forwarding network whose single goal is to create a collectively robust network with sustainable advantages. We provide the best for our members regarding member support, global exposure and security.

IFC8 is designed to suit forwarders who wish to dramatically grow their business with reliable global partners who have been stringently vetted.

EXPERTISE

With decades of worldwide experience in the freight forwarding and logistics industry, IFC8 knows the needs and challenges that most freight forwarding companies face. With international networking expertise, we can help you gain reliable partners worldwide.

POWERFUL NETWORKING

With the right approach, we believe networking can provide the opportunity to build mutually beneficial relationships with other professionals. IFC8 devotes entirely to helping members work with reliable partners even in the most challenging geographical regions.

RELIABLE MEMBERS

We believe in providing a highly competent group of members who have trust in each other and have the capability to accomplish services efficiently.

COMPETITIVE PRICING

Our competitive fee structure helps members participate to the fullest extent possible and grow their business reasonably.

MANAGED BY WCAworld

IFC8 is managed by WCAworld, the world's largest and most powerful group of independent freight forwarders – ensuring quality and excellence across the entire network.

STRINGENT QUALIFYING PROCESS

A high-quality standard of members is vital at IFC8. Our qualifying process is strict as we seek the most active, financially strong and well-established members worldwide.

INFINITE PROTECTION

"Combined total of US$3,000,000 annual protection in case of non-payment from other members"

Being protected is essential in any business transaction as it minimizes risks and shields you from suffering significant losses. All enrolled member offices are covered by the Gold Medallion Plan. With this feature, members can conduct business with each other in a safe and reliable environment.

ANNUAL CONFERENCE

"Bring freight forwarders together to generate greater value by working together"

IFC8 believes in connecting people through face-to-face meetings. A conference will be held yearly. The conference will consist of One-to-One meetings and activities for members to get to know one another. These meetings will help increase the visibility of members' company profiles to other members with whom they can grow their business.

FREIGHT INSURANCE

"Let World Insurance handle your cargo, freight forwarder, cyber, bonds and charterers liability insurance"

World Insurance, the exclusive risk management partner for WCAworld, IFC8 and its affiliates, provides members with quality insurance protection and advisory services. By insuring your business through WIS, it has been safeguarded from any potential claims that may occur in unforeseen circumstances. World Insurance is dedicated to serving the members of IFC8 in protecting their businesses by offering in-depth coverage at cost-effective premiums.

WCAworld PARTNERPAY

PartnerPay, a free membership benefit available to every IFC8 registered company, is an online system that allows members to instantly pay and receive money from their partners anywhere in the world.

Completely safe and secure, PartnerPay's unique online software allows members to manage and maintain their account payables and receivables simply and effectively, minimizing transaction fees and boosting profit margins on every shipment.

ALL WORLD SHIPPING

"Your partner in global transportation solutions"

Due to its exclusive relationship with IFC8, members can enjoy free unlimited access to AWS services and benefits.

As a globally focused U.S. based, neutral NVOCC licensed by the U.S. F.M.C., AWS allows its agents to issue their online HBL which is accepted and insured at destinations worldwide. In addition, AWS also provides government-mandated customs services such as AMS filing (U.S.) and AFR filing (Japan) for FCL and LCL ocean shipments.

With 3995 agent offices in 158 countries, AWS is one of the world's largest agency groups.

All World Shipping

UPS COURIER SERVICE

"Courier costs slashed by unique IFC8 program"

IFC8 has secured discounted rates for our U.S. members with UPS courier service across all destinations. It can be used for domestic, international, and import packages that weigh 150 pounds or less. This FREE program offers discounts of up to 60% on standard retail pricing and boasts significant cost-saving margins for member companies.

ECO PROGRAM

“A win for your business and the planet”

The effects of climate change are being seen and experienced worldwide. IFC8 members can now work with partners that embed carbon measurement and offsetting capabilities to meet customer demands for climate action in supply chains.

CUSTOMER SERVICE

IFC8 knows our members are the pivot point of our business. We believe that customer service is the linchpin of our relationship with our members. With a strong customer service team, IFC8 is firmly maintained and kept up to date to provide the best for our members.

MARKETING & PROMOTION

IFC8 has developed sophisticated marketing and P.R. facility as an additional member benefit. Designed to promote the unique benefits of each network and individual InFinite Connection (IFC8) member companies across a range of multimedia industry outlets, InFinite Connection (IFC8) 's experienced team of industry media experts can help you maximize your profile and impact.

WCAworld QUOTATION SYSTEM

WCAworld Quotation System is a FREE member-only platform that allows IFC8 members to send and receive RFQs with fellow members worldwide. The system helps our members get an accurate quote faster, cuts down on the back-and-forth emails, skips the member verification process and avoids payment term problems.

WCAworld ACADEMY

WCAworld Academy provides IFC8 members with the training and education necessary to achieve and maintain the highest industry standards by working with specialists in each area. These subjects range from general freight training and problem-solving to specialist courses in pharmaceuticals, perishables, and obtaining compliance. In addition, current trends and case studies are used to assist and enhance your business.

WCAworld ICE

IFC8 members can now promote their services, tariffs, rates and resources through a clean, controlled cloud-based environment. WCAworld ICE is easy, secure and most efficient way to convey your messages across the network. There are many features to help members streamline their messaging and reach fellow partners around the world in just a few clicks.
